

The North Hi Breeze

By LEILA SANTOR

Campaigning is going on full force as candidates for class and league officers present their qualifications for office to the student body.

The most sought after offices are in the junior class for next year, as eight are running for president, and in the Girls' League, where each office has five or more candidates.

There are 117 people running for 29 offices. Nomination assemblies are being held this week and next week and elections are the following Thursday.

"Almost Paradise" is the theme of the much awaited Junior-Senior Prom which is being held here at North High this Saturday night. North is going to be transformed into a "heavenly" place for this annual event which honors the graduating seniors.

Highlight of the Prom will be coronation of the outstanding senior girl and boy as the emperor and empress of the dance. Music will be by the Paraders. Doors will be open at 8:30.

At 11, dinner will be served, buffet style, and Saxons may dance or eat at their leisure until 1 a.m. when the Prom will end. This promises to be a very memorable affair.

Scholarship Society members held their annual banquet last Saturday night. The theme of the banquet was Hollywood, and this was very aptly carried out by emcee Ron Treman as he awarded graduating members "Harriets" for their outstanding work.

The fine Arts Award Banquet will be held May 31 at the civic auditorium. Prizes will be awarded to outstanding students in the fields of art, drama, music, speech, and literary achievement.

Entertainment at the banquet will be a one-act play directed by Bob Brooks, "The Last Trial." The play features Claudia Smith, Bob Cash, Jim Sena, Von Hershey, and Carl Hoybee. Other acts include Linda Gibson, Jan Kuhl, and Ronnie Montellius. Tickets are $1.75. The public is invited.

Senior Class President Peggy Strout urged all seniors to pay their money for the senior trip by tomorrow. Those who have not paid will be ineligible to attend.

The Varsity Drag will be held this Friday night at the YWCA. Roger Lawson and his moonlighters will play. Dress is semi-formal.

Moose Dinner Set
A "dime a dip" dinner will be served at the San Pedro Moose Hall, 1039 Elberon, starting at 6:30 Saturday. Dancing will follow and all members and guests are invited.

This Friday the candidates for ASB, class, and league offices will begin their speeches. The officers elected this semester will be responsible for all student body activities next year. Remember, vote, and vote carefully.

Next Friday the elected officers will be announced at a sock hop in the girls' gym.

Arlington Registration Scheduled on June 5, 6

Arlington School will hold its spring round-up for kindergartners on June 5 and 6. Any child who will be five before Dec. 2 may be pre-enrolled. Proof of birth date is required.

Kindergarten teachers will answer questions about the program and the PTA will help with registration and serve refreshments. Appointments for a check-up with the school doctor may be made by calling Davis 3-0566.

Y's Men's Club Plans Book Sale

The Torrance Y's Men's Club, an international men's service club related to the local YMCA, announced plans today for a used book sale on June 14 and 15 at the Torrance YMCA.

Books will be sold at 10 and 25 cents a volume, and all proceeds will go toward youth work projects of the adult YMCA group.

Paul Burnam, president of the local unit, made a plea for citizens in the area to contribute books to the YMCA for the sale. Burnam stated that every home has books that have long been read for the last time. He is hopeful that citizens will contribute such books to the "Y" so that others may enjoy them. Burnam pointed out that in past book sales those who contribute books are often the best customers as they discover new titles to replace the ones they have discarded.

Dick Brown, chairman of the Y's Men's book sale, stated that all categories of books will be welcome and that a member of the service group will be glad to pick up your books if you call the YMCA at FAirfax 8-1272.

The Torrance Y's Men's Club

meets every first and third Tuesday evening at 7 at the Torrance YMCA, 2080 Washington Ave. All men between the ages of 21 and 36 are welcome to visit the group any Tuesday evening. A program of service, education and recreation can be enjoyed by all who participate.

Opening New Office
American Savings and Loan Assn. will open a new office in Azusa about June 15, according to an announcement by S. Mark Taper, chairman of the board.

Shoe production in the U.S. in normal years runs to approximately three pairs for each man, woman and child.
